

Latin Lawyer announces 'Lifetime Achievement Award' to Colombian Lawyer Francisco Urrutia

POSSE
HERRERA
RUIZ

Bogotá, February 6th 2017

The prestigious international publication Latin Lawyer announced that Francisco Urrutia has been recognized with the Lifetime Achievement Award, for his prominent career as a lawyer in the national and international legal community.

Both partners and other team members of Posse Herrera Ruiz feel honored by this recognition awarded to our former partner who performed as co-head of the Natural Resources and Energy practice.

His work was focused on joint ventures, negotiations and in the official communication Latin Lawyer expresses, "Francisco Urrutia is a leading name in Colombia's natural resources space. Prior to his retirement, he co-led Posse Herrera's natural resources and energy department, using his deep knowledge of the oil and gas, mining and power sectors to attract clients."

Francisco has an LL.M. from Harvard Law School and a J.D. from Universidad de los Andes, and held many important corporate positions at leading companies, as well as public service as Deputy Director General of Taxes and Advisor to the Minister of Finance, and was a member of the Board of Directors of Ecopetrol, Cerro Matoso and Ocensa.

Along with the Colombian jurist, Brazilian lawyer Antonio Meyer was also exalted. Posse Herrera Ruiz extends our congratulations.

Latin Lawyer award ceremony will be held March 23rd in São Paulo.